Tiny Horoscopes

September 2026

Sagittarius, the pinata takes more swings than anyone expects,
but the candy is
never in
question.

Capricorn,
the vending
machine that
ate your money for
years drops two of everything now.

Libra, a color you
mixed by accident
is now the one the
whole
workshop
wants to borrow.

Scorpio,
it's the
beekeeper's
slow hands,
not the smoke, that
finally settles the
hive.

Aquarius, the
misprinted stamp is
the one collectors
empty their savings
for.

Pisces, while you've been translating for everyone in the room, someone
has quietly
learned your
language.

Aries, you've
played a dazzling
opening move,
but the middle
often takes more
time.

Taurus,
nobody's
watching the
bass player but
every foot in the room is keeping
their time.

Leo, the entire orchestra
tunes to one oboe --
and somebody's
got to play it.

Virgo, a
hermit crab
tries on many
shells before
one fits, and
nobody calls it
indecision.

Cancer, the
lost-and-
found box
you keep for
everyone else finally
holds something with
your name on it.

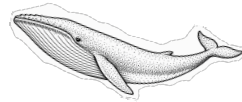

Gemini, a cigar box you
handed off years ago
will come back to you ttrung as a
guitar.
